INDEX

Names of persons and places mentioned in the footnotes are normally excluded, as are many of the names and places mentioned in the paper by G. Wettinger; that paper and especially its lists, should be consulted. Churches and chapels are indexed under 'Church'. Personal names are given under the family name wherever possible, with occasional cross-references. Names are generally given in the form used in the text.

Abbatija tad-Dejr Catacombs, 58
Abela, Gian Francesco, 28, 47, 48
Academie de France, 2
Accademia di S. Luca, 2, 9, 10, 15, 18
Acireale, 26
Acropolis, 2, 27
Adam, Robert, 7
Ages of Enlightenment, 2
Agrigento, 26
Agrigento, Mgr. Filippo, 30
Alessandro Cardinal Albani, 20
Alexander VII, 69, 71, 76, 84
Alfiere, Mgr. Martine, 84
Alfiere, Vittorio, 1
Aligrotti, 39
Algiers, 30
Amato, Antonio, 22
Amato, Canon Filippo, 93
Antonelli, Cardinal Giacomo, 91, 92, 93, 96
97, 98, 100, 102
Attolbrandinio, 86
Arna, Giuseppe, 80, 83
Archivio di Stato, Palermo, 39, 60, 62
Argotti Gardens, 25
Ardono, Agnello, 41
Atbina, 6, 26, 27
Attenzione Temples, 26
Attaci, 29, 39, 41
Auberger de Castille, 3
Auberger de Provence, 23
Augsburgians, 94, 95, 100
Avignon, 70
Bacoco, 33, 39
Ball, Sir Alexander, 7, 8, 9, 10, 13
Ball's Monument, 12, 13, 15
Badia di S. Agata, 22
Barbonate, Carlo Antonio, 28
Baroque Art, 1, 2, 3, 4, 11
Barrochiamo, 8
Bartolo, Padre Luigi, 44-52
Bassano, 42
Baldini, Pompem, 36
Battaglia, Francesco, 21, 23
Battaglia, Rosario, 21, 23, 24
Bevercw, Ignazio, 41
Behrend, 47, 48
Bellanti (Canon), 31
Benedetti, Giovanni, 37
Benedict XIV, 9, 76
Benedictine Nuns, 79
Bonici, Filippo, 34, 35, 36, 40, 41
Boruda and Barbados, 90
Brey, 48
Bernand, Nicolas, 34, 35
Berrini, Giovanni, 71, 73, 87
Bibliotheca (Valletta), 6, 8, 22, 24
Biblioteca Comunale di Palermo, 62
Bighi Hospital, 14, 18
Bisson, 34
Bonamici, Gio. Francesco, 18
Boudin, Don Salvador, 14
Bonici, Giuseppe de Bonnici, Giuseppe
Bonici, Gio Francesco, 23
Bontani, Giuseppe, 24
Book of Revelations, 46
Borg, Don Filippo, 86
Borg, George, 38
Borg, John, 38
Bormolini, Francesco, 20, 22, 23
Bramante, Donato, 29
Brau, Mgr, Giuseppe, 90, 91
Breslin Gallery, 33, 41
Brown, Henri, 19, 61
Bruce, 3, 6
British Admiralty, 27
British Museum, 29
Brooke, Luigi, 26
Bruce, Thomas, 26, 27
Bruno, 34
Brydon, Patrick, 21
NOTES ON THE CONTRIBUTORS

FRANCIS AZZOPARDI holds a Licentiate in Church History from the Gregorian University and a Diploma in Archivistics from the Vatican School. He is a Franciscan Capuchin friar and was ordained priest in 1953. Ex-Minister Provincial of his Order, he is also Archivist and Historian of the Malta Province. He is a regular lecturer in Church History and Christian Archaeology at INSERM and a visiting lecturer in Church History at the Faculty of Theology. He is also Research Assistant and Cataloguer of the Archives of St. John. His publications include several scholarly studies of historical interest.

JOHN AZZOPARDI studied at the Malta Archdiocesan Seminary and the Royal University of Malta and he holds the Licentiate of Divinity. He was ordained priest in 1962. In 1967 he was appointed curator of the Cathedral Museum at Mdina and he actively collaborated in the reorganization of its magnificent collection. In conjunction with St. John’s University, Collegville Minnesota, U.S.A., he is responsible for the organization and filming of the ecclesiastical archives at the Museum and has extended the project to include other collections at the Curias of Malta and Gozo, the religious orders and the parishes. He is also responsible for the running of a conservation laboratory. His publications include Archives of the Cathedral of Malta Misc. 32A: 1313-1539: The Study and Text of an Eighteenth-Century Index of Transcripts (Malta 1977); Handlist of the Episcopalian and Pro-Vicerial Archives at the Malta Cathedral Museum (Minnesota 1975), and a study of Albrecht Dürer. He has also collaborated in the study and research of Maltese Art History and has published specialised articles on the subject.

JOSEPH BEZZINA holds a Doctorate in Church History from the Gregorian University and Diplomas in Archivistics and Librarianship from the Vatican School. He was ordained priest in 1975. He is a regular lecturer in Church History, Patrology and Methodology at the Gozo Episcopal Seminary and a visiting lecturer at the Faculty of Theology of Malta and at INSERM. His other duties include that of Diocesan Archivist of Gozo. He is the author of books and scholarly studies mainly of historical interest.

MARIO BUHAGIAR holds a B.A. (Hons) and M. Phil. from the University of London and is currently researching for a Ph.D. from the same University. He has specialised in Art History and the Paleochristian Antiquities of the Maltese Islands. Between 1967 — 1971 he was attached to the National Museum Department to work on the compilation of the Protective Inventory of Monuments and Sites which was being drawn up by the Malta Government with the co-operation of the Council for Cultural Co-operation of the Council of Europe. His publications include specialised studies on Maltese catacombs and rock-tombs, cave-dwellings, Medieval church architecture, panel paintings and folk art. He is the editor of Proceedings of History Week.

ALOYSIUS DEGUARA studied at the Malta Archdiocesan Seminary and at the Royal University of Malta. He was ordained priest in 1952. Between 1965 — 1960 he was successively parish-priest of the villages of Kirkop and Gharghar. In 1960 he was nominated first archpriest of Siggiewi a post he resigned in December 1975 after having served for ten years as Secretary of the Malta College of Parish Priests. He was subsequently chosen Archbishop’s Delegate for the Lay Apostolate and Director of the Piccolo Clero. In 1981 he was elected Chaplain to His Holiness the Pope and invested with the title of Monsignor. He has carried out extensive research at the Vatican Library and in 1981 he submitted his thesis on the influence of the Reverenda Fabrica di S. Pietro on Maltese Social and pastoral life in the period 1626 - 1655, to the Malta Faculty of Theology. He is currently researching on Maltese social history during the 17th century.

MICHAEL ELLUL is a fellow of the Royal Historical Society. He holds the degree in Architecture and Civil Engineering (B&E, ASCE) from the University of Malta and a post-graduate diploma in Architectural Restoration from the University of Rome. After a time in private practice he joined Government Service in 1955 and is currently Head of the Antiquities Division of the Ministry of Works as well as the official Maltese member on the Committee of the Architectural Heritage of the Council of Europe in Strasbourg. He is also a lecturer in Architecture at the University of Malta. His publications include a book on Maltese Architecture and many scholarly papers in local and foreign journals.

EDWARD SAMMUT is a Fellow of the Royal Historical Society and a Knight of Malta. He holds a Doctorate in Laws (LL.D) and an M.A. in History of Art from the Royal University of Malta and has carried out post-graduate studies in Rome and Perugia. His published works include The Co-Cathedral of St. John (1956), The Palace of the Grand Masters (1954), The Monuments of Mdina (1960), The City of Valletta (1968) and Notes for a History of Art in Malta (1954). Among his numerous shorter publications are the Maltese documents regarding Caravaggio and Melchiorre Gaff. He has lectured widely in Malta and Italy.

GODFREY WETTINGER holds a B.A. (Hons), M.A., and Ph.D. from the University of London and has carried out extensive research on Maltese history and interdisciplinary subjects in Maltese and Sicilian archives. He is lecturer... in History at the University of Malta and has presented scholarly papers to a number of International Congresses and Symposia both in Malta and overseas.
His specialised field of study is Maltese Medieval History and he has published widely on the subject discussing such topics as lost villages and hamlets, place-names, militia lists, surnames and nicknames, agriculture and industries, and literature and artistic patronage. He is at present finalising the preparation for the publication of Univ. II containing the minutes of meetings of the Town Council of Malta and associated documents, 1450—1483, 1498—1499.